DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed 06-30-2008 has been entered.
2. Claims 1 and 3-14 are pending.

Specification

3. The amendment filed 06-30-2008 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it continues to introduce new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: a cutout is formed completely through any one or more members 10, 15, 20, and 25 of the frame.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. Claims 1 and 3-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Specifically, claims 1, 7, and 14 recite a cutout is completely formed through the base periphery. This feature as intended by the applicant is not supported by the original disclosure.

Art Unit: 3677

5. Claims 1 and 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

6. Claim 1, lines 18-21, are redundant with claim 1, lines 8-10.

7. In claim 4, lines 2-3, the phrase "said means for displaying an aesthetically pleasing graphic image or shape" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

9. Claims 1 and 3-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Burke (US#4063378).

10. Burke discloses a wall mounted cover comprising:

11. means for providing structure to a frame of the cover comprising a top frame member having a base periphery (18) (see Fig. 2) allowing the cover to lie substantially flush with a flat surface and a cutout (26) completely formed therein allowing air movement between an interior space of the cutout and the outside of the cover;

12. means for providing structure to the frame of the cover for elevating the face thereof comprising first and second side frame members, each having cutouts (26);

13. the planar face (32) having disposed thereon an aesthetically pleasing graphic image or shape comprising a face or front decoration (30), connected to said means for providing structure to the frame of the cover, being dimensioned to substantially cover the opening bordered by the top and side members;

Art Unit: 3677

14. means for mounting the cover to a surface comprising a wall retention device (48) that is rigidly constructed to said means for providing structure to the frame of the cover; and

15. a bottom frame member having a cutout 26, the bottom member providing stability and connected to both side members.

16. According to col. 5, lines 50-55, the top and side members are polymeric.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

17. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

18. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Burke (US#4063378).

19. Burke discloses all the elements of claim 14 except for the front decoration comprising an alphanumeric design. However, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to include an alphanumeric design for the front decoration, since it appears that the invention would perform equally well with any suitable design. Moreover, patentable novelty cannot be principally predicated on mere printed matter and arrangements thereof, but must reside basically in physical structure. (See In re Montgomery 102 USPQ 248).

Primary Examiner, Art Unit 3677

Art Unit: 3677

20. The applicant argues the cutout of the amended specification and pending claims 1, 7, and 14 is not new matter. While there is support in the original disclosure for a cutout in the frame members, the original disclosure does not support a cutout formed completely through any one or more of the frame members as recited by the amended specification. The applicant is invited to point to anywhere in the original disclosure which provides for the cutout being formed completely through any of the frame members.

21. The applicant argues the cutout 26 in Burke does not form a passageway completely through any members of the frame. However, the exact claim language is broader than this argument. The claim requires "a cut-out completely formed therethrough", not a cut-out formed completely through as eluded to by the applicant in the arguments. The actual claim language can be reasonably interpreted as requiring the entire (complete) cutout be formed through (therein) the respective frame members, i.e. the cutout not extend beyond the respective frame member boundaries. Burke meets this reasonable interpretation of the claim language.

Conclusion

22. Applicant's amendment necessitated any new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37
